Thank You to Our Current Clients

Thank you very much to our new clients and current clients expanding the role of Bellwether's solution in their business and making it more efficient and effective. Because of your continued use and support of PMX we are allowed to bring you three new releases between now and March 2007.

Special Discounts Available!

Special discounts are available for customers who choose to upgrade from Express to SQL.

If you need a more powerful database that can concurrently handle many transactions across multiple business systems, now is the time to upgrade to the Sequel database. Receive a credit of 100% of original purchase price plus special discounts toward purchase price of SQL upgrade!

Upgrade to a larger multi-user system.

If your want to move from a five-user system, for example, to a ten-user system, discounts are now available. Every module up graded allows you a significant discount over the current list price .

Deep end of summer discounts available on all modules for existing customers.

Now is the time to add that requisitions module, communications module and etc. your department has needed for so long! All PMX modules are discounted until the end of August! Buy two new modules and receive the third additional module upgrade at a 50% discount off the
